- My time here at きた High School has been amazing. Everyone here has been very nice to me. As I arrived I was afraid that the experience here would be scary. But I enjoyed every minute here. I felt included in every class that I participated in, no matter if it was gym or math I felt included. All of the students here tried talking to me and including me in conversations. I would recommend this school to anyone coming to Japan. I believe Nagoya is better than any other place in Japan. I hope きた high schoolers can come to Coeur d' Alene eventually or just America in general. — Nolan
